OLI: To plan a diary entry

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JEsV5rqbVNQ>

The diagram illustrates a structured approach to planning a diary entry. It consists of three main rectangular sections: Introduction: (top left), Main: (bottom right), and Ending: (bottom left). Each section is accompanied by one or two circular nodes labeled Thoughts and Feelings. The flow is indicated by orange curved arrows and thick black straight arrows. The process starts at the Introduction: section, moves to its Feelings circle, then to its Thoughts circle. A thick black arrow points from the Introduction: section to the Main: section. From the Main: section, a thick black arrow points to its Thoughts circle, which then leads to its Feelings circle. Finally, a thick black arrow points from the Main: section to the Ending: section, which leads to its Thoughts circle and then its Feelings circle. Orange curved arrows show the internal flow within each section's circles.
