

Identifying Determiners, Conjunctions
and Prepositions in Sentences

5a. Underline the conjunctions in the following sentences:

A. Maisie is still an amazing dancer even though she injured her ankle last year.

B. I was going to eat the last few sweets until Dad said our dinner was ready.

C. You must look both ways before you cross the road.

VF

Identifying Determiners, Conjunctions
and Prepositions in Sentences

5b. Underline the conjunctions in the following sentences:

A. They could go to the party if they were older.

B. I like to eat popcorn while we are watching a movie.

C. Liam said he would eat his spinach after he had eaten his lolly.

VF

6a. Circle the prepositions in the following sentences:

A. The excitable dog ran around the tiny garden and barked loudly.

B. Above the fireplace is a mirror but we can't see in it.

C. The villagers, who were poor, carried buckets of water on top of their heads.

VF

6b. Circle the prepositions in the following sentences:

A. Teagan travelled to so many cities that she got them all confused.

B. I like to sit beside the fire so I can cuddle up with my cat.

C. The toothpaste, which is minty, is next to the toothbrush.

VF

7a. Underline the determiners in the following sentences:

A. Last year we went on two planes, which we have never done before.

B. My best friend, Bruce is ten and his sister is two.

C. We were told to look at that tiger when we went out on the plains.

VF

7b. Underline the determiners in the following sentences:

A. The sofa, which is still fairly new, has a few crumbs on it.

B. I wrote an amazing blog about football before I went to bed.

C. There are twenty cows in the field but they never sit down.

VF

8a. Identify and label the determiner(s), conjunction(s) and preposition(s) in the following sentences:

Tom kicked his ball although he wasn't very good. He missed the goal and it flew towards the fans.

VF

8b. Identify and label the determiner(s), conjunction(s) and preposition(s) in the following sentences:

Tania danced on the stage, despite her nerves. She was incredible and many people cheered.

VF

Identifying Determiners, Conjunctions
and Prepositions in Sentences

9a. Underline the conjunctions in the following sentences:

A. You should go to the shops soon so you have enough time to get ready for tonight.

B. I can't go out to play today, although I would like to play tomorrow.

C. Before folding up your clothes from the washing line, make sure they are dry.

VF

Identifying Determiners, Conjunctions
and Prepositions in Sentences

9b. Underline the conjunctions in the following sentences:

A. When I am older, I want to travel the world to see as many places as possible in a year.

B. Keaton eats peas with everything, whereas Norris hates them with a passion.

C. I'll have some crisps, rather than some chocolate for a change.

VF

10a. Circle the prepositions in the following sentences:

A. Opposite the bus stop is the library, which has recently opened.

B. The phone rang continuously during the film I was watching, so I ignored it.

C. Pollution is a serious problem in all cities throughout the world, although things are not changing quickly enough.

VF

10b. Circle the prepositions in the following sentences:

A. Adjacent to the school is a park, where most of the neighbourhood go during the summer months.

B. Before I left this morning, the phone rang, so I was late setting off.

C. Nobody spoke during his speech, and he received a huge round of applause.

VF

11a. Underline the determiners in the following sentences.

A. There are many types of insects living in the jungle, although I couldn't name them.

B. Would you like to choose any other flavours of ice cream and make it three scoops?

C. Most schools, that I know of, have some students with special needs.

VF

11b. Underline the determiners in the following sentences.

A. Each tree has plenty of leaves in the summer, however most lose them in autumn.

B. Some animals like to live outdoors but a few prefer to hibernate during the winter months.

C. All these coats look warm but one has thin material and short sleeves.

VF

12a. Identify and label the determiner(s), conjunction(s) and preposition(s) in the following sentences:

Kyrah ate many chips until she was full. Before that, she had been swimming in the sea with her friends.

VF

12b. Identify and label the determiner(s), conjunction(s) and preposition(s) in the following sentences:

Zak studies science at school even though he prefers maths. His teacher talks throughout the lesson.

VF