Morning break 10:30-11:00
Reading 11:00-11:30	20 minutes daily reading. Don't forget to keep reading daily. If you are short on books at home, you can find some books online via the Oxford Owl website. They are free to access once you have signed up and are levelled. https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/reading/free-ebooks/
English 11:30 - 12:30	This week is children's mental health week. Throughout the week we will be exploring what is meant by mental health and discovering the things that make us unique. In today's lesson, you will be learning about positive mental health. There is a matching activity as well as a poster design task.	Today we will be thinking about the things that make us different and unique. Watch the teaching video and complete the activities; all about me and we are all stars.	Reading the book 'Perfectly Norman'. The story is a wonderful celebration of our differences and teaches us that there is no such thing as perfectly 'normal'. Listen to the story before watching the teaching video and having a go at creating your own acrostic poem all about you!	Reading the book 'The Colour Monster'. Have a go at describing an emotion of your choice. Try and use some similes to help describe that feeling. There is an optional 'which emotion?' extension activity as well as a supported 'feelings monster' writing frame if you are finding the activity a little challenging,	Spellings - The sound 'igh' spelt 'y' at the end of words  Art Explore the work of the artist Mark Rothko, who used big blocks of colour to express his feelings. Have a go at creating your own piece of artwork.
