

Writing Prompt: Creative Story

Where was I? The last thing I remember was defending my home from invaders. Now I was stiff and cold. It was hard to breathe. I pushed and shoved, there was a ripping and a tearing, suddenly I was blinded by the light... Finish the story.

What do you need to remember in your writing?

- Neat handwriting
- Capital letters and punctuation in the correct places
- Think carefully about spelling - especially high frequency words
- Use ambitious adjectives - try to avoid using good/bad/sad etc. Think about all the adjectives work we did last term
- Start your sentences in different ways: All of a sudden... Out of the blue... After a while... In the distance... After... Meanwhile...
- Use adverbs to add detail: suddenly, quickly, slowly

Please send me your work, I look forward to reading your stories ☺
